

2007 Walkability Workshops

“Takin’ It to the Streets: Making Communities Walkable”

with

Dr. Ron Eck

WVU Department of Civil and Environmental Engineering

(All sessions will be held from 9:00 am - 12:00 pm. )

Friday, March 9, 2007

SESSION 1

Introduction: How Did We Get into This Situation and What Can We Do about It?

- ⌘ Sprawl and Walkability
- ⌘ Role of Walking and Biking
- ⌘ Adapting communities for pedestrian and bicycle travel
- ⌘ Policies to encourage non-motorized travel

Friday, March 30

SESSION 2

Creating a Walkable Environment: How To Do It Right

- ⌘ Characteristics of pedestrians and bicyclists
- ⌘ Walkways, sidewalks and public spaces
- ⌘ Signs and markings
- ⌘ Accommodations at intersections and mid-block crossings
- ⌘ Multi-Use Trails
- ⌘ Accessibility

Friday, April 27

SESSION 3

Putting It all together: Creating a Multi-Modal Environment

- ⌘ Bike lanes and shared roadways
- ⌘ Bicycle parking and storage
- ⌘ Pedestrian/bicycle connections to transit
- ⌘ Pedestrians/bicycles in work zones
- ⌘ Legal issues/risk management
- ⌘ Guided Walkability Audit (in field)

All sessions are FREE and will be held at the LaBelle Theater, 311 D Street, South Charleston.

Please reserve your spot by calling Susie Salisbury at 304-340-4253, or ssalisbury@charlestonareaalliance.org.