The LWVWV Invites You to Attend a Special Event During Our 2023 Biennial Convention

Saturday May 13th at 1 pm.

In Keeping With Our Theme ‘The Fight for Women’s Equality, It’s Not Over!’

Our Guest Speaker will be
Author, Historian and Activist
Elisabeth Griffith, PhD

Some notable comments about Elisabeth!

“Betsy Griffith is a consummate storyteller, combining research and riveting narrative to keep alive the political and social struggle for equal rights by American women front and center .”

Ken Burns, documentary filmmaker

“Author and historian Elisabeth Griffith offers an unprecedented survey of the women’s suffrage movement that masterfully intertwines two parallel crusades for justice, those of Black and white women.”

Lissa Muscatine, co-owner of Politics & Prose Bookstore, former chief speechwriter to Hillary Rodham Clinton

“Griffith’s compelling narrative casts new light on victories but also persistent fault lines in the quest for equality across the social landscape.”

Ann Compton, ABC News White House correspondent covering seven presidents
